Foneng X70 Angled USB to USB-C cable, 3A, 1m (black)

Foneng X70 USB-C cable

Ensure maximum comfort during exciting gameplay. The Foneng X70 cable features specially curved ends at a 90° angle, so the cable won't get in your way while using your phone. It supports high-speed charging at 3 A, and high-grade materials have been used to ensure that the cable will serve you well for a long time.

With gamers in mind

Do you often play games on your phone? The X70 is sure to live up to your expectations! The 90-degree curved USB-C connector allows you to use your smartphone comfortably while charging. You no longer have to interrupt intense gaming! What's more, the cable offers 3 A charging - so you can be sure that charging won't take too long.

Safe and robust

The carefully thought-out design combined with high-quality materials will allow you to enjoy the functionality of the cable for a long time. The nylon braid effectively protects the cable from damage and also prevents tangling. The X70 is also equipped with a smart chip, which is responsible for safety during charging.
