Waterproof backpack cover 25l PGYTECH P-CB-046

Are you going on a trip? Do you often hike in the mountains or take photos outdoors? Don't let the rain stop you! PGYTECH's P-CB-046 waterproof cover effectively prevents leaks, and when needed, you can easily fold it up and attach it to your harness or zipper with a special lanyard. What's more, the special drainage hole allows you to remove excess water on the fly. The product is extremely flexible and fits backpacks up to 25l.

Reliable water protection

No longer do you have to worry about your belongings getting wet and damaged in the rain. All you need to do is use a reliable cover from PGYTECH! The product is made from high quality water resistant material. It effectively prevents water from getting inside your backpack. No worries - even if it rains, your belongings will be safe!

You can always have it with you

When going to the mountains or on any other kind of expedition, you can never be sure if it will not suddenly rain. That is why it is always a good idea to have a waterproof cover with you to protect your equipment from water in case of need. The product is fabulously easy and convenient to transport. You can simply fold it and attach it to your backpack with a practical lanyard. With PGYTECH you will be prepared for any eventuality!

Practical drain hole

Concerned that during a downpour, so much water may accumulate on the cover that it gets completely wet and starts to leak? Don't be! The product has been equipped with an additional drainage hole, which allows for efficient drainage of the excess liquid. As a result, the cover will stay dry enough to provide your belongings with reliable water protection.

Incredibly flexible

Wondering if the cover will fit your backpack? We will help you to dispel similar doubts! The product is extremely flexible - it will fit most backpacks with a capacity of up to 25l, such as the OneGo by PGYTECH. The cover is also incredibly durable and resistant to damage - it will serve you well for a long time.
