ENCHEN X8-C Shaver

If you're looking for comprehensive, reliable solutions, then the Enchen X8-C is sure to impress you. This shaver provides exceptionally precise shaving, leaving your face perfectly smooth. It stands out with its efficient operation, up to 1 hour of runtime, and convenient charging (USB-A to USB-C cable included).

Precision Shaving

Enjoy comfortable and safe shaving with the Enchen X8-C. The shaving head consists of 3 movable cutting heads with a double row of blades, adapting to the shape of your face and smoothly gliding over it. You can use it for both dry and wet shaving. Additionally, it features self-sharpening blades, ensuring you always enjoy excellent shaving results. Moreover, you can quickly disassemble and clean the head thanks to its magnetic construction.

Up to 60 Minutes of Operation

The Enchen X8-C is equipped with a durable lithium-ion battery that provides up to 60 minutes of operation on a single charge. Furthermore, a dedicated indicator will inform you about the charging status. To replenish the product's energy, it takes about 60 minutes. The task is made easier with the USB-A to USB-C cable included in the package.

Quiet, Efficient Operation

Enjoy reliable operation with the Enchen X8-C. The shaver features an advanced motor that operates at a high frequency, ensuring efficient performance. Furthermore, it doesn't generate annoying noise - the device's noise level is 62 dB, so you don't have to worry about disturbing other household members.
