Mcdodo PN-8921 Stylus Pen for iPad (white)

Ref: 6921002689212

Capacitive stylus / stylus / pen Mcdodo PN-8921 for Apple iPad (white).

The Mcdodo PN-8921 stylus is designed for iPad users who value precision, convenience and innovation. Equipped with Palm Rejection, it allows you to freely use the stylus even when your hand touches the screen, which significantly increases the comfort of your work. With its sleek white casing, the stylus is not only a working tool, but also a stylish addition to your iPad.

Technology at the highest level

The PN-8921 features an advanced pressure sensing system that perfectly replicates the true behavior of a pencil on a page, offering users a natural drawing or writing experience. With built-in tilt sensors, the stylus accurately captures every movement, providing exceptional accuracy and smooth lines, which is invaluable when creating sketches or notes.

Magnetic attachment and wireless charging

The Mcdodo PN-8921 stylus is equipped with magnets, so it easily and securely attaches to the edge of the iPad, which not only makes it easy to store, but also initiates the wireless charging process. This convenient solution allows you to quickly check the battery status and ensures that the stylus is always ready for use.

Long working time and durable tip

The stylus's capacious battery guarantees up to 7 hours of uninterrupted use on a single charge, which means you can enjoy all the functions of the stylus all day long without the need to charge it frequently. The improved silicone tip is extremely durable and abrasion-resistant, providing more than a year of use. If you need to replace it, the process is quick and convenient.

Features to make your work easier

The Mcdodo PN-8921 also offers a quick screenshot function, allowing users to conveniently take screenshots with an automatic editor launch. This is a practical tool that makes it much easier to capture and edit content directly on the device.
