APEXEL APL-HB170SW 170° wide angle phone lens

In today's world where every moment is worth capturing, the APEXEL APL-HB170SW phone lens is a key tool for any mobile photography enthusiast. Designed by Apixel, this 170° wide-angle lens significantly changes the way we view mobile photography, offering unparalleled quality and ease of use. See what it can offer you!

Thoughtful design

The APL-HB170SW features an advanced design, combining high-quality materials including optical coating, aluminum and ABS. As a result, the lens is not only durable, but also provides exceptional image quality. Its glass construction guarantees crystal clear images without distortion.

Functionality and easy installation

The main function of this lens is to significantly enlarge the camera's field of view, allowing you to capture a wider 170° view. This is ideal for landscapes, architecture or group shots. Its mounting is child's play thanks to the universal clip with M17 thread, making the lens compatible with 98% of smartphones and tablets on the market. Regardless of the make or model of your device, the APEXEL APL-HB170SW is ready to use in seconds.

Top quality

The APEXEL APL-HB170SW is CE, RoHS and Reach certified, which proves its high quality and safe use. Compatibility with almost any smartphone and tablet makes it a versatile tool that will meet the needs of even the most demanding users.
