Electronic Talking Sea Battle Game Lexibook

Get acquainted with the electronic and talking version of the classic Sea Battle game. Lexibook presents an innovative approach to the familiar pastime that draws players into the world of sea battles with advanced sound and light effects, taking the fun to a whole new level. It requires 3 1.5V AA/LR6 batteries, which are not included. The game is suitable for people who are at least 6 years old. The maximum number of players is 2.

Interactive gameplay for everyone

The Lexibook electronic talking Sea Battle game offers the option of playing solo against the computer or competing against another player, providing excitement for both solitary challenges and playing together. Choose the game mode that best suits your needs - competition with the machine or direct confrontation with your opponent.

Battle for maritime supremacy

Start the game by deploying your ships on the ocean board and prepare for a strategic battle. Your task is to sink your opponent's fleet by firing at selected coordinates. Use your intuition, logical thinking and foresight to outwit your opponent.

A game that draws you in

The Lexibook product is equipped with a host of features to increase realism and engagement in the game. A talking computer allows players to choose a language from several options, and adds interactivity and helps players understand the rules and refine their tactics. The sounds of hitting and sinking a ship add excitement to the action on the board, and lighting effects enhance the experience of every move.
