Dareu EM945X wired mouse

Dareu EM945X is a wired gaming mouse that will meet the expectations of even the most demanding users. Equipped with an advanced PWM3337 sensor - it offers outstanding precision and responsiveness, ideal for both professional work and dynamic gaming. Its modern design and RGB backlighting add style and unique character to any computer workstation.

Versatile and precise PWM3337 sensor

A state-of-the-art PWM3337 sensor is responsible for the reliable performance of the mouse. In addition, the device allows you to choose from six levels of DPI resolution: 500, 1000, 1500, 2000, 4000 and as much as 18000, so you can adjust its operation to your current needs! In addition, the tracking speed of 420 IPS and 50G acceleration ensure the highest precision of movement, making the mouse ideal for games that require fast response and other tasks, such as graphics editing.

Exceptional comfort

Do you often spend long hours playing games? Take care of your comfort! The EM945X mouse is distinguished by its light weight of 88 g and dimensions of 40 x 129 x 73 mm, so it fits perfectly in your hand and provides long-lasting comfort. What's more, the 1.8-meter cable allows you to enjoy freedom of movement, which is extremely important during intense games.

Durability

The Dareu EM945X mouse is characterized by exceptional durability. The lifespan of its buttons reaches up to 20 million clicks, which guarantees long-term use without worrying about wear and tear. In addition, the solid construction and high-quality materials ensure the reliability and longevity of the device.

Striking RGB backlighting

An additional advantage of the mouse is the colorful RGB backlighting, which adds to its unique style and makes it a fantastic addition to any gaming station. Ensure an unforgettable atmosphere in your gaming room and get even more enjoyment out of every game!

Universal compatibility

Dareu EM945X is compatible with Windows XP, 7, 8, 10, 11 and macOS operating systems. As a result, you can easily use it in conjunction with various devices, such as laptops and computers from well-known brands. Thus, it will be the perfect tool for both everyday work and gaming!
