Torras Ostand R Fusion Series Case for iPhone 16 (light blue)

Torras Ostand R Fusion Case for iPhone 16 (light blue)

The TORRAS Ostand R Fusion case is designed for maximum protection of your iPhone 16. Made of durable materials, it provides effective protection against drops, scratches and other damage. Its slim design does not add unnecessary bulk, so your phone retains its original silhouette while being fully protected.

Convenience in any position - 360° rotation

Thanks to its innovative 360-degree rotating ring design, the TORRAS Ostand R Fusion case offers unparalleled convenience. You can position your phone at any angle, making watching videos, video calls or browsing the Internet even more comfortable. The feature also allows you to hold the phone securely in your hand, reducing the risk of accidentally dropping it.

Magnetic grip

The case is equipped with strong magnets that provide a stable attachment to both car mounts and other magnetic accessories. You can use your phone without worry while driving, working out on a stationary bike, or just relaxing with the device in your hand - the strong magnet will ensure that the phone stays in place, regardless of the conditions.
