MomCozy infant carrier BC001-KC00NB-A (beige).

The MomCozy infant carrier is the perfect solution for parents who want to keep their baby close while maintaining full freedom of movement. Thanks to its lightweight design, the carrier will be perfect for both daily walks and travel. It provides maximum comfort, allowing you to enjoy closeness with your baby, no matter where you go.

Ergonomic back and waist support

The carrier is equipped with special EVA foam support at the waist for unparalleled comfort during prolonged carrying. The built-in lumbar support effectively minimizes the strain on the back, relieving it while carrying the baby. The thickly padded shoulder and waist straps are easily adjustable, adjusting the carrier to fit any body shape and guaranteeing a personalized fit.

Baby skin-friendly material

Made of 100% soft cotton, the MomCozy carrier is not only comfortable, but also safe for baby's delicate skin. The breathable material provides optimal thermal comfort, regardless of the season, making the carrier ideal for both summer walks and cooler days.

Tailored to fit any

The MomCozy carrier has adjustable shoulder, waist and seat straps, so it can be adjusted to fit parents of different heights and body shapes. The cross-strap design ensures stability and security when carrying a toddler. What's more, the carrier is easy to put on and take off, which is especially important during daily activities.

Safe and comfortable for baby

The MomCozy carrier provides ideal support for the baby in the belly-to-belly position of the parent, which is optimal for the healthy development of the toddler. The fully ergonomic design supports the natural M-shaped leg position, which promotes proper hip development. This baby carrier is suitable for children weighing between 3 and 20 kg, which means it will work well for both newborns and older infants.

Easy cleaning and care

MomCozy has made sure that the baby carrier is not only functional, but also easy to clean. The product is machine washable, which means that keeping it in excellent condition is not a problem, even with heavy use.
