ZHIBAI VL620 hair curler

With the ZHIBAI VL620 universal curling iron, you can not only curl your hair, but also straighten it. The device allows for 5-stage temperature control in the range of 140-220°C and heats up very quickly. At the same time, it is easy to use and convenient to transport. Thanks to its well-thought-out design, it allows efficient hair styling without contributing to hair damage. With ZHIBAI you will conjure up the hairstyle of your dreams!

Ideal for hair styling

Now you only need one device to straighten or curl your hair. ZHIBAI VL620 curling iron is perfect for styling - with its help you can easily create a dazzling hairstyle. The effects will last up to 48 hours! What's more, the device heats up in no time - it takes about 30 seconds. In addition, specially designed ceramic plates glide smoothly through the hair without pulling or damaging it.

5-stage temperature control

Is your hair straight and thin? Or do you have thick, long curls? ZHIBAI VL620 will work well in any situation! The product allows 5-stage temperature control, making it ideal for different hair types. 140°C and 160°C will work for fine hair, 180°C will be suitable for dry hair, and if your hair is curly, choose 200°C or 220°C.

Don't be afraid of getting burned

Enjoy convenient yet safe hair styling. The VL620 curling iron is equipped with a high-quality PC casing that perfectly insulates heat and provides protection against burns. The device also has 204 cold air outlets - the low temperature of 25°C will protect hair from damage, close its scales and make it smoother and shinier.

User-friendly

The curling iron is very easy to use and fits well in the hand - using it is extremely comfortable. The cable of the device rotates 360°, providing freedom of movement. Changing the temperature is enabled by an easily accessible button, and the selected values appear on the built-in display. What's more, the curling iron will automatically turn off after 30 minutes - don't worry if you forget about it!

Will prove itself while traveling

Going on a business trip or vacation? Don't give up the opportunity to style your hair quickly and conveniently! The VL620 curling iron is extremely lightweight and compact. You can easily fit it in your suitcase and take it with you wherever you want! The device is compatible with 100-240V, so you can also use it abroad without any problems.
