Mini foldable desktop phone holder Dudao F14S (white)

Phone / tablet stand

Dudao phone or tablet stand will provide you with incredible comfort while browsing the web, watching series or recording videos. The stand will make it easier for you to do your daily chores. Thanks to the adjustable tilt angle, you can easily adjust it to your liking. The sturdy design guarantees stability and protects your device from damage.

Many possibilities

The F14S stand will work perfectly during various situations. You will use it to watch your favorite movies or TV series. It can also be used during live broadcasts or remote lessons. Thanks to it you can easily shoot videos for your social media profiles.

Thoughtful design

The stand allows you to adjust the angle of tilt in the range of 5-45°. So you can easily adjust its setting to your needs and ensure maximum comfort while using your phone or tablet. Another advantage of the stand is its handy, foldable design - you can successfully fit it even into your pocket and take it with you wherever you want!

Exceptional stability

Robust and durable construction guarantees the safety of your equipment. There are silicone elements on the stand, which not only hold the device stably, but also protect it from damage or scratches.
