Dudao X10S wired in-ear headphones

Enjoy high sound quality and comfort. The Dudao X10S headphones provide ear-pleasing sound and are extremely comfortable. They also have a built-in microphone that allows you to talk freely on the phone. This is a versatile choice for people who want their favorite songs to accompany them every day!

High quality sound

Ensure clear, natural sound when listening to your favorite tunes and when talking on the phone. The X10S headphones offer great sound quality thanks to their 14-millimeter drivers and are equipped with a high-end microphone. So you can talk freely on the phone, confident that your caller will hear you without any problems.

Incredible comfort

The headphones are distinguished by their ergonomic design, thanks to which they can provide the comfort of your dreams. They lie fantastically in the ears, do not fall out of them or exert unpleasant pressure. They are also extremely lightweight. In addition, the long 1.15-meter cable guarantees freedom of movement.
