Techwood rice cooking device

Do you like Asian dishes and often cook rice? Equip yourself with a practical device that will ensure that the rice you prepare will have the right consistency and high taste. The appliance has a capacity of 1 liter, and the removable non-stick bowl makes cooking easy. Another advantage is the keep warm function, while a practical switch is responsible for convenient operation.

Professional cooking

Do you like to prepare delicious dishes and care about the high quality of the meals you serve? With this device you will forget about sticky, overcooked rice. The TCR-106 has a one-liter removable bowl, which allows you to prepare the optimal amount of food and provides convenient handling. Its non-stick coating is also a plus - the rice will not burn or stick.

Well designed

The Techwood TCR-106 not only allows you to cook, but also offers a keep warm function. This way you don't have to worry about the rice becoming dry before you finish the rest of the dish. A practical switch allows you to conveniently switch between cooking and keeping warm functions, while a glass lid provides a view inside the unit. Insulated handles for safe handling and the unit's small size are also a plus.
