Silicone Cover & Strap Sunnylife for OSMO Action 3 (OA3-BHT506-R)

Sunnylife silicone strap cover for Osmo Action 3

Take care of the safety of your camera and bet on the Sunnylife silicone cover. The product provides shock and scratch resistance. Specially embossed button space ensures efficient and comfortable use of the buttons. The case does not interfere with the most important functions of the camera - cutouts for the screen, lens, microphones, charging port, or quick release slot ensure quick access and hassle-free operation of the device. You'll also find a strap included for easy transport and to help prevent camera drops.

Silicone protection

Sunnylife's cover is made of high-quality silicone to provide protection against scratches and shocks. The material is soft, pleasant to the touch, and environmentally friendly. What's more, the special coating makes the cover resistant to dust and fingerprints, so keeping the camera clean won't be a problem for you.
