USB-C cable for Lightning Foneng X87, 30W, 1.2m (blue)

Foneng X87 Type C USB cable for iPhone

Charge your iPhone in even less time. The Foneng X87 cable provides up to 30W of power and supports fast PD charging. It's also highly durable and damage-resistant - don't worry about it refusing to serve you too quickly. It has a length of 1.2 m, so you can comfortably use the devices connected to it.

Fast charging

Tired of waiting too long for your phone to charge? With Foneng you will forget similar problems and save time! The X87 cable supports PD 30W fast charging, which means it can renew your iPhone's energy in no time.

Improved design

Don't be afraid of damaging your cable quickly. The Foneng X87 is very durable - bending or pulling it is not a major threat to it. What's more, durable materials such as zinc alloy have been used to make it. You'll also find a special Velcro fastener included for easy storage and transport of the cable.
