Cable USB-C do USB-C Choetech, XCC-1003, PD 60W 1.2m (black)

Choetech XCC-1003 USB-C to USB-C cable, PD 60W 1.2m (black)

The Choetech XCC-1003 cable is a high-end accessory that will allow you to instantly charge and transfer data at 480 Mbps. It supports PD 60W fast charging and works with most devices powered by a USB-C cable. The cable is made of sturdy materials and features a nylon braid that makes it extremely resistant to abrasion, pulling and bending. Choetech XCC-1003 will successfully serve you for a long time!

Convenient use

The universal length of the cable (1.2 m) will give you freedom during charging and data transmission. The cable is designed for fast operation, so with its use you will save time and will not have to wait for a long time for your devices. The maximum charging time for a 60W laptop, for example, is only 1.5 hours! The cable has a nylon braid, which makes it extremely resistant, so you can throw it loose in your bag without any worries - it won't be harmed by pulling and bending.
