Nillkin Striker case for Samsung Galaxy S23 Ultra (blue-green)

Protect your phone and give it effective drop protection. Nillkin Striker is a three-dimensional, non-slip case that will keep your smartphone safe. It has a special camera cover, is made of the best quality silicone and is designed specifically for the Samsung Galaxy S3 Ultra, so it adheres perfectly to the phone, protecting every edge. The case also features a modern design that is sure to catch your attention!

Full protection

The Nillkin case consists of a combination of TPU and PC materials. It is easy to install and remove, and its edges are soft and will not scratch your phone. Your device will remain intact for longer. What's more, the specially designed camera cover is sliding. When you are not using the camera, it protects the camera lens and also helps protect your privacy.

Precisely tailored to fit your phone

The Nillkin Striker case is designed specifically for the Samsung Galaxy S23 Ultra. This means that it guarantees convenient access to all side buttons, while effectively protecting the edges of your phone. The case will allow you to use your phone comfortably and let you enjoy its performance for longer. The product is finished with soft and pleasant to the touch silicone, which is resistant to dirt and fingerprints, so keeping it clean will not be a problem for you.
