Nillkin Strap case for Samsung Galaxy S23 Ultra (Blue)

Nillkin Strap case for Samsung Galaxy S23 Ultra (blue)

Want to properly protect your smartphone from damage? The Nillkin Strap case will help you do just that! It fits perfectly to the Samsung Galaxy S23 Ultra and does not block access to the buttons. It is made of durable plastics that provide reliable protection. The metal frame around the camera provides excellent protection against scratches. The case also comes with a detachable wrist strap to increase the security of your phone during everyday activities.

Even better protection

The Nillkin Strap will keep your smartphone safe! Different types of plastic were used to make the case - the back is made of hard PC and the edges are made of soft TPU. As a result, you can be sure that your phone is effectively protected against shocks, bumps or scratches. The metal frame around the lens provides reliable protection for the camera.

Wear it the way you like it

The case features a practical fabric strap so that your smartphone will never fall out of your hand again! It provides a secure grip for everyday activities or sports. What's more, you can wear it in 2 different ways - it's up to you.
