PGYTECH magnetic mount base

Preserve your special moments on the go for a longer period of time - the PGYTECH magnetic sports camera mount base will help you do just that! It features a sturdy and stable design, so you can be sure that your equipment is completely safe. It is also distinguished by its light weight, so you can successfully attach it to a variety of metal surfaces, including the hood of your car, a refrigerator or a railing - you are limited only by your imagination. It will successfully replace the original base of a sports or car camera mount.
