Baseus Comet 20000mAh 22.5W powerbank (white).

Charge your devices no matter where you are! The Baseus Comet powerbank is distinguished by its 20,000mAh capacity, making it perfect for everyday use. It supports multiple fast charging standards, and its maximum power reaches up to 22.5W. It has 2 USB ports and 2 built-in cables, so you can easily charge several devices at the same time. It provides a high level of safety, and thanks to its thoughtful design, use will be even more convenient. A USB-C cable is also included in the set.

Instant charging

With Baseus Comet, charging your devices is faster than you think. The powerbank offers charging with a maximum power of 22.5W. It also supports a number of fast charging protocols including PD, SCP, FCP, QC and AFC. This will charge your Huawei P50 to 60% or iPhone 14 to 50% in as little as 30 minutes.

Up to 4 devices simultaneously

You no longer have to wait until one device is charged to plug in another! The powerbank is equipped with 2 ports - USB-C and USB-A, and has two built-in cables - USB-C and Lightning. Now you can easily charge as many as 4 devices at the same time! With its help you will successfully renew the energy of your smartphone, tablet, wireless headphones, smartwatch or electric toothbrush.

No worries about safety

Freely charge your devices without worrying about damaging them. The powerbank reliably protects against overcharging, over-discharge, overvoltage, overcurrent, short circuits or electromagnetic fields. It also offers a special mode that allows charging at a lower amperage, and controls the device's temperature to prevent overheating. It also meets all aviation requirements, so you'll be able to take it on a plane with you without any problems.

With attention to detail

For the construction of the powerbank, high-quality materials were used, which are characterized by high durability and resistance to wear - you can be sure that Baseus Comet will serve you well for a long time. Thanks to its carefully thought-out design, carrying and storing the powerbank won't be a problem for you - you don't have to worry about tangled cables. It also has a built-in display, from which you can check the state of charge of the battery.
