ESR Metal Kickstand Case for Samsung S23 (clear)

Looking for reliable protection for your phone? ESR's case can guarantee it for you! Made of the highest quality materials, it demonstrates great durability and drop protection. What's more, it also comes with an adjustable kickstand, which will make watching videos or video calls even more comfortable.

Safety Guarantee

ESR's sleeve is designed with safety in mind. It is distinguished by reinforced corner protection, so the most sensitive parts of the phone are properly protected. What's more, the raised edges of the screen and camera guarantee the safety of these elements as well.

User comfort

ESR is also about user comfort. The case is equipped with an adjustable stand, so you can put your phone at 30 and 60° angles vertically and horizontally, allowing you to comfortably watch movies or browse the news. What's more, the case stands out for its perfect fit on your smartphone and is suitable for wireless charging.
