Earfun protection case for AirPro3 TWS Earphones (black)

Earfun protection case for AirPro3 TWS Earphones (black)

Your EarFun headphones accompany you everywhere? Take care of their protection and bet on a case dedicated to TWS AirPro3 headphones! The product is made of high-quality silicone and protects your equipment in case of a fall. What's more, the case is waterproof and dustproof. A carabiner for easy transport is responsible for comfortable use, as well as a well-thought-out design so that you don't have to remove the case when you want to refill your device.

High level of protection

The case was created from soft silicone, which effectively protects against various dangers during daily use. It perfectly adheres to the charging case, protecting its interior from water or dust. What's more, the anti-shock properties protect your headphones in case of a fall!

Comfort of use

The case comes with a special carabiner that will allow you to place the headphones in a convenient place - so you can always have them at hand! Noteworthy is the fact that you don't have to remove the case when you want to charge your headphones. Check out how convenient it is!
