The Puluz photo backpack is distinguished by its large capacity, so you can easily pack the necessary equipment and accessories in it. Special pockets allow you to stay organized, and the pull-out compartment provides quick and convenient access to your camera and lenses - so you won't miss a special shot. What's more, it guarantees comfort of use and is water-resistant, so it protects the equipment inside from damage.

Large capacity

Puluz PU5017B will successfully accommodate the photography equipment you need. Thanks to its large capacity, you will be able to store not only your camera, but also 2 additional lenses, a 14" laptop, a bottle of water, a tablet, a smartphone, sunglasses, a tripod and much more.

Durable and ergonomic design

The backpack was created with durable materials, making it resistant to water and wear and tear. In addition, the metal zipper provides additional protection for your gear, and the suspenders made of soft and breathable material are responsible for comfort. In addition, a special strap allows you to fasten the backpack on the front or attach it to the handle of your suitcase. So you can take it with you on your travels and enjoy long-lasting comfort.
