The ONIKUMA K10 Headphones.

ONIKUMA K10 headphones are an ideal choice for gaming enthusiasts, enthusiasts of unique design and people who appreciate comfort and excellent quality. These headphones will be reliable companions in any adventure, guaranteeing excellent sound experience and comfort. For unparalleled comfort, the ONIKUMA K10 headphones feature a padded headband that gently rests on the head, and shape memory foam pads. These pads are made of soft and tactile eco-leather that not only provide comfort, but are also easy to clean. These headphones are equipped with a great quality geometric shaped microphone that features noise cancellation. This allows your team to hear you clearly, regardless of the environment, ensuring smooth and effective communication during gameplay.

Superior Sound Quality

The ONIKUMA K10 headphones impress not only with their looks, but especially with their sound quality. Equipped with powerful 50-millimeter speakers, they offer superior sound that takes you right into the middle of the action. Now you can experience adventures at a higher level and achieve success in games even more easily. Regardless of the situation, no murmur will surprise you. The K10 headphones perfectly synchronize sound with image, which is crucial during intense moments of gameplay. Knowing that sometimes only fractions of seconds decide, you can be sure that this device will not leave you behind. Feel confident in the competition, knowing that every sound and reaction is accurately reproduced, enabling you to achieve perfect results.

Clear Communication

In the gaming world, effective communication with your team is the key to success. The ONIKUMA K10 headphones realize this and enable you to talk freely and clearly. The microphone on these headphones is precise - it has a noise cancellation function that eliminates background noise to make your conversations clear. This makes effective communication the cornerstone of any gaming collaboration and strategy.

Exceptional Comfort

The ONIKUMA K10 headphones are designed for experienced gamers who spend hours on games where the fate of a character is crucial. That's why the headband of the headphones has been uniquely padded with eco-leather cushions with a pleasant texture. This carefully selected material not only provides softness to the touch, but also durability for long-term use. The cushions located on the left and right handsets are also covered with the same pleasant-to-touch eco-leather.

Unique design

The geometric design and sturdy build of the ONIKUMA K10 headphones is complemented by a glowing logo and illuminated mesh on both headphones to make you enjoy using them even more.
