USB-C to USB-C cable Choetech, 1m (black)

USB-C to USB-C cable 1m
The Choetech cable will allow you to quickly and safely charge devices equipped with a USB-C input. In addition, it provides instant data transfer between devices. It is made of durable and wear-resistant materials. It also stands out for its high compatibility.

Fast charging and data transfer
You don't have to wait indefinitely to charge your devices. The Choetech cable allows you to charge your devices with up to 60 watts of power. It will also be perfect for powering laptops. In addition, it also allows you to transfer files instantly, thanks to a speed of up to 480 Mbps. So you can copy the data you need in no time.

Wide compatibility
The cable works with most popular devices equipped with USB-C ports. You can easily use it to renew the energy in your Lenovo, Dell or HP laptop, Samsung, Huawei, LG tablet or smartphone, among others. You will also use it to charge your Nintendo Switch console.
