ORICO-CBS5-GY Cable Organizer (Grey)

The clutter on your desk is now a thing of the past. The self-adhesive Orico cable organizer allows you to optimize any space, enabling convenient organization of up to 5 cables while providing them with stable support. It is made of environmentally friendly silicone and is extremely durable. It takes very little to finally take care of the order!

Perfect Cable Organization

You no longer have to worry about your cables getting tangled or tripping over them. With the Orico organizer, you can easily arrange up to 5 cables exactly as you want and avoid clutter. One small product is all it takes to achieve the organized desk you've always wanted!

Many Possibilities

The Orico organizer is designed to help you organize various types of cables. Its compartment width is 5 mm, making it ideal for headphone cables, mouse cables, data cables, audio cables, or Ethernet cables, among others.

Self-Adhesive

Now you can securely attach the organizer to your chosen flat surface. Orico's product comes with double-sided 3M adhesive tape, allowing you to stick it to walls, desks, or tables. If needed, you can also remove the organizer without risking damage to the surface.

An Excellent Addition to Your Desk

The holder is made of durable yet flexible silicone, making it resistant to wear and various types of damage. It also provides reliable, stable support for your cables. Despite its functionality, it is quite small, measuring only 96 mm in length, so it won't take up much space on your desk.
