Vention KDNW0 laptop stand (white)

Do you spend a lot of time in front of your laptop screen? Stock up on the Vention stand and take care of your comfort. It allows you to adjust the position of your laptop to the optimal position, which affects the comfort and efficiency of your work. It allows you to adjust the angle of inclination, providing you with an ergonomic position that relieves the strain on your spine and improves your working comfort. Once folded, you can easily store it in your bag and take it with you wherever you want.

Position your laptop just the way you like it

The Vention stand offers a 9-level angle adjustment. This means you can adjust the position of your laptop to your preference, whether you're working, studying or just browsing the Internet. Get the optimal angle for your screen and improve the efficiency of your work while taking care of your health!

Stable and safe

A carefully thought-out design with a ventilation hole effectively prevents the device from overheating, ensuring optimal air circulation. This allows your laptop to work without strain, even during intensive tasks! Sturdy legs allow you to place your laptop safely, and non-slip elements protect it from accidental movement.
