Vention Micro Jack 3.5mm to Micro Jack 6.35mm Cable, 1m, Black

The Vention BAUHF model cable combines outstanding quality with aesthetics. Made from durable cotton braiding and shielded with PVC casing, it ensures long-lasting protection against mechanical damage and external factors. Its tinned copper wire and aluminum foil shield provide excellent conductivity and insulation, minimizing interference. Gold-plated connectors guarantee optimal signal transfer, while the universal 3.5mm and 6.35mm micro jack connectors allow for versatile applications. The elegant black color adds a professional touch, making it the perfect choice for any audiophile.

Durable Construction

The Vention BAUHF model cable combines functionality with durability. Its cotton braiding ensures that the cable is resistant to abrasions, bends, and everyday use. Additionally, the PVC outer casing protects the cable from external factors such as moisture and dirt.

Cable Protection

This cable's wire is made of tinned copper, ensuring excellent conductivity and resistance to corrosion. The aluminum foil shield is an additional protective barrier that provides effective insulation and minimizes interference. Together, they create a combination that guarantees long-term use without sacrificing audio quality.

Gold-Plated Connectors

Vention cable connectors are gold-plated, adding elegance and, more importantly, ensuring optimal conductivity while minimizing the risk of signal loss. This results in clear and uninterrupted sound transmission.

Versatile Applications

This cable is incredibly versatile and can be connected to various audio devices such as speakers, amplifiers, guitars, or mixing consoles. Its 3.5mm and 6.35mm micro jack connectors allow for a wide range of connections, making it an ideal choice for both professionals and enthusiasts.
