Vention Micro Jack 3.5mm to Micro Jack 3.5mm Cable 1.5m

In today's world, sound quality plays a crucial role in our daily lives, whether it's for relaxation with your favorite music, talking to loved ones on the phone, or watching a movie. The Vention Micro Jack 3.5mm to Micro Jack 3.5mm 1m cable combines technology with attention to the smallest detail, ensuring a great acoustic experience.

Enameled Copper Core

The heart of every cable is its core. The Vention Micro Jack 3.5mm cable features an enameled copper core. This feature provides excellent conductivity, resulting in clean and uninterrupted sound flow. Copper is not only a highly conductive material but also durable, ensuring the cable's longevity.

TPE and Cotton Braided Outer Jacket

Protection and durability are as important as conductivity. The cable is designed for everyday use, so the TPE outer jacket adds flexibility and resistance to mechanical damage. Additionally, the cotton braided jacket not only increases the cable's durability but also gives it an elegant and modern look.

Hi-Fi Sound

Sound quality is a crucial feature for every audio enthusiast. Thanks to advanced construction and high-quality materials, the Vention cable offers Hi-Fi sound. This means you can expect clear, deep sound that faithfully reproduces the nuances of every note.
