Vention Audio Micro Jack 3.5mm to Micro Jack 3.5mm Cable 1.5m Blue

The Vention Audio Micro Jack 3.5mm to Micro Jack 3.5mm cable combines exceptional durability, confirmed by its ability to withstand loads of up to 50kg and bend more than 6000 times without damage. Thanks to its innovative stepped design, it can be plugged directly into your phone, even if it has a thick case, eliminating the need to remove it. The gold-plated connectors ensure crystal-clear sound, and the elegant aluminum finish adds class and style. It's a compact combination of durability, functionality, and design that will meet the expectations of even the most demanding users.

Reinforced Construction for Long-Lasting Use

The Vention Audio Micro Jack 3.5mm to Micro Jack 3.5mm cable not only looks stylish but also offers exceptional durability. Designed to withstand daily challenges, its solidity is confirmed by its ability to bear loads of up to 50kg without the risk of breaking. Additionally, the cable is designed to endure more than 6000 bends, making it not only reliable but also resistant to everyday wear and tear.

User-Friendly for Phone Cases

Thanks to its stepped design, the Vention cable allows for easy and quick connection to your device, even if you have a case on it. This is a solution appreciated by anyone who wants to maintain the protection of their phone while using the cable.

Gold-Plated Connectors for Excellent Sound Quality

Sound quality is a crucial factor when it comes to audio cables. Gold-plated connectors not only provide an aesthetic appearance but, above all, excellent signal conductivity. This guarantees pure and flawless sound in any situation.
