Vention CTIBF USB 2.0 (male) to Micro-B (male) cable (2 A, 1 m, black)

The Vention USB 2.0/Micro-B cable provides a current rating of 2 A and a data transfer speed of 480 Mbps for fast and efficient device charging and file transfer. It also supports fast charging protocols, is widely compatible and durable.

Fast charging technology and data transfer

Charge your devices and transfer data at the same time - faster than ever before. The Vention cable supports a variety of fast charging technologies, such as Huawei FCP, Qualcomm QC and Samsung AFC, for lightning-fast energy recovery. At the same time, it offers the ability to transfer data at 480 Mbps.

Durable, thoughtful design

High-grade 28/22 AWG copper wire with multiple shielding provides protection against interference, while the reinforced cable end resists repeated bending. The PVC material makes the product flexible. It is also distinguished by its wide compatibility with devices equipped with a Micro USB port, such as phones, Bluetooth speakers, Bluetooth headphones, lights, driving recorders, fans, portable chargers, game consoles, security cameras, recorder pens or readers.
