Torras OriginFit-Mag Case for iPhone 15 (Black)

Protect your smartphone with the high-quality Torras OriginFit-Mag case. This product stands out with its impressive magnetic strength, broad compatibility with MagSafe accessories, and solid construction. Thanks to well-thought-out solutions, it provides protection to the device during falls.

Ultra-Thin Design

The OriginFit-Mag case is characterized by its slimness - it's only 0.03" thick, making it almost unnoticeable on the device. The accessory is also not a superfluous burden, and the use of Soft-touch™ technology has provided comfort while holding the phone in hand and increased resistance to slipping by 20%.

High Magnetic Strength

A magnetic force of 19 N ensures reliable attachment of magnetic accessories. The case uses Halbach and N56 magnets, providing up to 120% more stability than similar products and allowing for convenient wireless charging.

Enhanced Protection

Advanced X-shock 4.0 technology absorbs shocks, and reinforced corners and raised edges protect the phone's screen and camera from scratches and cracks. Additionally, the Bayer material further increases impact resistance. All for the care of your phone!
