The Zeblaze Ares 3 Pro stands out with impressive waterproofing at 3 ATM (30 meters) and complies with the IP69K standard, making it resistant not only to water but also to dust. You can confidently use it in various conditions without worrying about damage. Whether it's a gym workout or jogging in the rain, it's no problem!

Health and Fitness Tracking

The Ares 3 Pro watch is not only a tool for monitoring physical activity but also offers many other features such as sleep tracking, heart rate measurement, blood oxygen level measurement, and even reminders to drink water. It's also great for tracking women's menstrual cycles. With the Ares 3 Pro, you have control over your health!

Durable Glass and Solid Construction

The Ares 3 Pro screen is protected by durable Corning® Gorilla® Glass, which effectively prevents scratches. The entire watch construction is robust and durable, ensuring that the Ares 3 Pro can handle the challenges of your active lifestyle.

Your Personal Assistant

The Ares 3 Pro is not only a fitness ally but also a helper in everyday tasks. It supports push notifications, keeping you updated with all notifications from your apps, even when you don't have your phone at hand. Features like wrist call answering, music control, and phone camera control are just some of the conveniences that make life easier with the Ares 3 Pro!

Long Battery Life

With a 400mAh lithium polymer battery, the Ares 3 Pro offers impressive battery life on a single charge. In power-saving mode, it can last up to 30 days, allowing you to use it for an extended period without worrying about it running out of battery during your workout or phone call.

Wide Compatibility

The Zeblaze Ares 3 Pro is compatible with devices running Android 5.0 or newer, as well as iOS 10.0 and newer. It supports multiple languages, including Polish, making it easy to use.
