Smartwatch Sport XO M50 (black)

Smartwatch Sport XO M50 (black)
The XO M50 smartwatch is the perfect combination of minimalism and functionality that makes everyday life easier and takes care of your health. The smartwatch allows you to receive incoming calls and check notifications, so you'll always be in the know - just lift your wrist. What's more, the device offers sports modes and monitors your health. Now you can enjoy all these functions in one device. In addition, the XO M50 is lightweight and IP56 water resistant, which translates into comfort.

A range of useful functions
From the smartwatch, you can answer calls without taking your smartphone out of your pocket and read SMS messages. Want to cut off from notifications for a while? Turn on "Do Not Disturb" mode and enjoy the peace and quiet. In addition, the remote shutter button allows you to take photos directly with the smartwatch, and the music player allows you to skip, pause songs, etc. In addition, with available apps such as Facebook, Skype and Twitter, you can stay up to date with social news.

Taking care of your health and fitness
Take care of your health with the XO M50. The smartwatch monitors your heart rate, blood pressure and saturation to keep you up to date on your health - now you can quickly respond to worrisome symptoms. In addition, the available sports modes will help you increase the efficiency of your workouts and ensure your dream results.

Clear access to notifications and settings

The 1.83-inch screen with a resolution of 240 × 284 provides a clear and easy-to-read display. This means you can easily check notifications, monitor data, and use various smartwatch functions.

Efficient operation

The advanced Zhongke Lanxun AD8918C chip makes the smartwatch run smoothly and without lag. So you can enjoy all the functions without worrying about interference. The 200 mAh battery guarantees about 4 days of operation with daily use and up to 20 days in standby mode. In addition, the magnetic cable makes charging easy - after about 2 h it will be ready for further use.

Compatible with your smartphone

The XO M50 smartwatch is compatible with both Android version 5.0 (or later) and iOS version 9.0 (or later). This means you can pair it with your smartphone without any problems and get the most out of it.
