ONIKUMA K9 Cat-Ear Headphones (Black)

Do you love playing games and chatting with friends on servers? Or perhaps you enjoy listening to music while strolling around the city and want to stand out? Maybe you just have a soft spot for cute things, but pink is too much for you? Either way, the ONIKUMA K9 headphones are a fantastic choice! With a stylish design, glowing elements, and detachable cat ears, these headphones will not only make you stand out from the crowd but also bring a childlike joy to your life. Equipped with excellent speakers that offer realistic, high-quality sound, a construction made from sturdy materials, and comfortable cushions, the ONIKUMA K9 headphones are about both style and quality!

Full Control in Your Hands

The ONIKUMA K9 headphones allow you to adjust the sound according to your preferences. You can freely adjust the tones of high, low, and mid frequencies to immerse yourself even deeper in the world of games or your favorite TV series. Additionally, a convenient control panel is located on the headphone cable, allowing you to easily manage volume and toggle the microphone on and off.

Customization Possibilities

The ONIKUMA K9 headphones are designed for maximum wearing comfort, even during extended hours. They feature breathable eco-leather cushions that not only look aesthetically pleasing and are easy to keep clean but also have a skin-friendly texture. With an adjustable headband, you can customize the headphone size to fit different needs, catering to users of varying ages and head sizes. The microphone can be neatly tucked away in the headphone housing for flexible usage based on your needs. Moreover, the included cat ears can be easily attached and removed according to your preferences!

More Than Just for Gaming

ONIKUMA K9 headphones aren't solely for gaming; they can be connected to a variety of devices, including Playstation, Xbox, Nintendo Switch, computers, tablets, and phones, just to name a few. With support for both Mini Jack and USB inputs, these headphones offer remarkable flexibility, allowing you to play games, watch movies and TV shows, listen to music, or chat with friends! Have a blast with ONIKUMA K9!
