Thunderrobot KG3089C Mechanical Keyboard, Blue Switch (Black)

Discover a new dimension of gameplay with the Thunderrobot KG3089C mechanical keyboard! Equipped with 89 precision keys including a numeric keypad, it offers not only comfort but also aesthetics with 20 lighting effects and three custom backlighting modes. Secure your gameplay or work with the system key lock, and the concave keys ensure that your fingers always stay in place. On top of that, a lifespan of 50 million clicks ensures that the Thunderrobot KG3089C will be your faithful companion for years.

Comprehensive Key Design

The Thunderrobot KG3089C mechanical keyboard, designed with demanding users in mind, offers 89 precisely crafted keys along with a numeric keypad. As a result, even the most complex tasks become simple and convenient. The sleek black design also appeals to gamers and professionals, adding elegance to any workstation.

Backlighting to Your Liking

The KG3089C is not just functional, but also visually appealing. It features three custom backlighting modes and as many as 20 interesting lighting effects. With the FN+F9 key combination, you can instantly change the lighting effect, and FN+ESC allows you to switch to custom modes, giving even more customization options.

Security During Gameplay

Have you ever accidentally pressed the system key during a game or important work? KG3089C has a solution. The FN+WIN combination instantly locks the system key, ensuring that your gameplay or work runs smoothly, saving you time and frustration.

Ergonomics in Every Detail

The keys of the KG3089C keyboard have been designed with long usage sessions in mind. Their concave construction ensures that the user's fingers won't slip off, guaranteeing precision and comfort during typing or gameplay.

Unprecedented Lifespan

Wondering how long such a product can last? The Thunderobot KG3089C was designed for durability. Its switches have an estimated lifespan of 50 million clicks, meaning the keyboard will serve you for many years. By choosing the Thunderobot KG3089C, you are investing in quality, comfort, and longevity. Its features and customization options will satisfy even the most demanding users.
