UV Flashlight Supfire S11-H, 365NM, USB

Superfire S11-H UV torch

The Superfire S11-H UV torch can effectively detect traces left by animals, as well as recognising signs of dermatophytosis and checking the authenticity of documents. The powerful rechargeable battery provides up to 180 minutes of operation. Water resistance and adjustable brightness give you the freedom you dream of. The product will also impress you with its robustness and ease of use.

Discover the possibilities of the UV lamp

The device emits pure UV light with a wavelength of 365 nm, which is responsible for its efficiency. You will use the possibilities offered by the S11-H in many ways. With the torch, you can check the authenticity of banknotes or documents, find stains left in the carpet by pets and even detect dermatophytosis in your pet.

Will last for a long time

The 800 mAh battery provides up to 3 hours of UV torch operation. Charging it is not even a problem - all you need is a micro USB cable. The S11-H also has a special battery status indicator. A blue light indicates that it is fully charged, while a red light indicates low energy levels. This way you always know when you need to plug the torch in!

Easy and comfortable to operate

Operating the torch is extremely intuitive - just use the small button on the bottom of the torch. It allows you to conveniently change the intensity of the emitted UV light - it can go from strong to weak or vice versa. The Superfire S11-H skilfully combines a wide range of possibilities with simplicity of use.

Use it whatever the weather

Although the back of the torch is not waterproof, you can use it on a daily basis whatever the weather without worry. Whether sunshine or rain, the S11-H will serve you perfectly. The device should not be harmed by accidental exposure to moisture. Use your UV torch freely and don't worry about the weather conditions!

Enjoy the comfort of use

The housing of the device is made of robust aluminium alloy. This makes the torch resistant to damage and impresses with its pleasant texture. Weighing only 78 g, it is extremely handy and portable. All this adds up to the unparalleled comfort of the S11-H - try it and see for yourself!
