2in1 Audio Adapter Mcdodo CA-5560 2in1 Lightning to 2x Lightning

Mcdodo CA-5560 2-in-1 lightning to 2x lightning audio adapter
The Mcdodo 2-in-1 adapter is an innovative device that allows you to simultaneously charge your phone and use headphones with a Lightning input. Equipped with both a charging port and a Lightning audio port, it provides iPhone users with full functionality without having to choose between charging and listening to music or taking calls. Using a high-resolution decoding chip, the device guarantees clear sound without distortion, while supporting fast charging with up to 5V/2.4A.

Excellent sound quality and ease of use
The Mcdodo adapter features a built-in high-resolution audio decoding chip that provides natural, smooth sound and high fidelity audio, offering users an unparalleled listening experience. The device also supports a remote control built into the headphones, allowing users to easily switch songs and adjust the volume without having to frequently unlock the screen. This makes the adapter not only practical, but also convenient to use.

Stability and universal compatibility
Developed in close sync with the Apple system, the Mcdodo adapter ensures a stable connection without the risk of unwanted messages. Its wide compatibility covers all iPhone models with Lightning input, from iPhone 6 to the latest iPhone 14, as well as iPads with the same connector. High-quality materials, including a highly textured aluminum housing, ensure corrosion resistance, wear and fast heat
