TWS Havit TW925 (black) earphones.

Immerse yourself in the highest quality stereo sound. The Havit TW925 wireless earphones deliver crystal clear sound, and with built-in microphones, they let you talk comfortably on the phone. Their operating time reaches 3.5 hours on a single charge, and Bluetooth 5.0 guarantees fast and stable transmission. Use of the devices is facilitated by built-in touch panels. The earphones also support voice control.

Reliable connection

Connection problems are a thing of the past. Bluetooth 5.0 provides a fast, stable and reliable wireless connection. The earphones automatically pair with each other and with the stored device, making using them fabulously easy. What's more, each independently connects to your smartphone, so you can conveniently use them both at the same time or just one.

Perfect sound

Delight in the highest quality HD stereo sound. The TW925 earphones offer unparalleled richness of detail, crystal clear sound and perfect harmony. Now you can discover the beauty of your favorite songs all over again!

Long runtime

Listen to music for as long as you want without unwanted interruptions. Fully charged earphones can play music for up to 3.5 hours on a single charge, and the included charging case lets you extend this time to about 17 hours. Lightweight and portable - it has been equipped with a USB-C port.

Built-in touch panels

You no longer have to reach for your smartphone every time to use the basic functions of the earphones. You won't be bothered by protruding buttons either. The TW925 have built-in touch panels, with which you can conveniently handle playback and phone calls.

Talk on the phone

Free your hands and comfortably talk on the phone while you cook, clean or engage in your favorite hobby. The TW925 earphones have built-in high-quality microphones that capture your voice perfectly. So you can be sure that your callers will hear you without any problems!
