Bike sleeve, cycling sleeve Rockbros XT9002BK (black)

The cycling sleeve is a practical accessory that will protect you from the sun and provide greater comfort on hot summer days. It will be perfect not only for cycling, but also for driving or climbing mountain peaks. The XT9002BK is made of stretch materials that are extremely pleasant to the touch.

Top quality workmanship

Top-quality materials were used to make the sleeve, which are distinguished by high durability and elasticity. This makes it very comfortable and pleasant to the touch. It also provides optimal breathability. What's more, the sleeve has been sewn in such a way that it does not slip off the hand and stably stays in place.

Reliable protection from the sun

Going for a bike ride on a sunny summer day? Provide adequate protection from the sun and heat! Thanks to the use of high-quality ice silk, the sleeve allows you to enjoy the feeling of pleasant coolness. With its help you will also protect your hands from sunburn.
