Electronic pinball table Guardians of the Galaxy Lexibook

Take up the challenge and become a pinball champion among family and friends. The Lexibook electronic pinball table, decorated with Guardians of the Galaxy images, guarantees not only great fun, but also stimulates the mind and reflexes, challenging any player over 5 years old. The screen allows you to track the current results of the game. To power the game, 3 LR14 batteries are required, which are not part of the set.

A gameplay full of effects

Become a pinball champion in your living room. The electronic table offers advanced gameplay with light and sound effects that transform every move into a spectacle. Thanks to an integrated screen, players can track their scores in real time, further heightening the competitive atmosphere.

Perfect control

The table is equipped with responsive paddles and a ball launch button, so it guarantees the precision and speed needed to score points. There are also buttons for managing music and resetting your best score, allowing you to fully personalize your game experience.

Show off your dexterity

Every element of the Lexibook electronic pinball table is designed to offer a unique challenge. From the cleverly placed obstacles to the dynamically responsive buttons to the strategically placed pallets, the device in effect requires players not only to reflex but also to think strategically.

Instant fun

You can easily prepare the table for play by connecting the stands and using the ON/OFF switch. The simplicity of setup allows you to quickly go from unpacking to playing, so you don't have to wait long for a dose of great fun.
