Rojeco interactive laser cat toy

Rojeco interactive laser cat toy
Encourage your cat to be active and provide fantastic fun. The Rojeco interactive toy offers a special laser beam that your four-legged friend can chase. It allows you to choose from 5 laser angles and works to attract your pet's attention and motivate them to be active. The device is powered from a power outlet, but can also work wirelessly - just buy batteries.

Your pet's best friend
With Rojeco your pet is in no danger of boredom! The laser toy responds to cats' hunting instincts and encourages them to be active. Thus, it not only provides them with great entertainment, but also helps prevent weight problems. Just turn on the device and watch your pet throw himself into a mad chase with the laser!

Two ways to power it
Be prepared for any circumstances and be sure that your pet will be able to enjoy great fun in almost any situation. Rojeco's toy offers 2 ways to power it - from a power outlet via a USB-C (DC) port or with batteries (not included). The decision is up to you!

The entertainment your pet needs
The toy offers 5 angles of laser projection to choose from, so you can customize it to your pet's needs and habits. In addition, the device has a built-in smart chip that simulates the irregular rotation of the laser dot, so it can effectively attract your cat's attention for a long time.

Refined in every detail
There are non-slip pads on the bottom of the toy, which provide stability and prevent it from sliding on the surface of a table or shelf. What's more, the device works surprisingly quietly - don't worry about disturbing you and your pet. Its convenient operation is enabled by a practical switch, with the help of which you can easily adjust the projection angle to your pet's needs.
