PULUZ tripod for Insta360 X3 / X4

Gain full control over your shots with the PULUZ tripod. This useful and durable accessory is designed for users who appreciate stability, functionality and ease of use. It will also work well for recording Bullet Time shots - just combine it with a selfie stick and a camera that offers such a mode (not included).

Durable design

The PULUZ tripod was created from aircraft-grade aluminum alloy, making it not only durable, but also lightweight. In addition, the handle made of high-quality PC and silicone elements increase comfort and guarantee a firm grip. The tripod also has an impressive load capacity of up to 3 kg, which allows safe use of various models of sports and panoramic cameras. It is also distinguished by a built-in magnet and silicone pads that give it more stability.

Compact and portable

The tripod's dimensions when folded are just 3 x 17.5 cm, making it extremely compact and easy to carry. When unfolded, it reaches a height of 13 cm, which is ideal for recording on a desk or other stable surfaces. Thanks to its small size, the accessory will easily fit into your bag or backpack - you will successfully use it while traveling.

Versatility and stability

The PULUZ tripod offers a 360-degree rotating handle with a 1/4-inch thread on top, which allows you to mount various devices and accessories, including cameras, selfie sticks and phone holders. It is also ideal for creating a Bullet Time effect. How it works. Just use the selfie stick, turn on Bullet Time mode on your camera, and then create a one-of-a-kind shot!

Wide compatibility

The tripod is compatible with a wide range of sports and panoramic cameras from well-known manufacturers such as GoPro, DJI and Insta360. This makes it an indispensable accessory for any filming enthusiast. Now you can easily create fantastic video footage!
