Naturehike yunyan ultralight folding hiking backpack NH17A012-B 18L black Naturehike yunyan NH17A012-B 18L ultralight folding hiking backpack (black).

The Naturehike folding hiking backpack was created with outdoor adventurers in mind. Thanks to its compact design, water resistance and well-thought-out design, the product is an ideal choice for any expedition, regardless of the weather conditions. Despite its capacity of 18 liters, it is distinguished by its light weight, and when folded, its dimensions are just 12 x 7 cm.

Compact and lightweight design

The dimensions of the Naturehike backpack are 42 x 23 x 17 cm, and when folded they reduce to 12 x 7 cm, which makes it much easier to store and transport. You can easily stow it in your pocket or luggage.

Waterproof and durable

High-quality materials have been used to make the backpack, providing reliable protection from rain and moisture. YKK waterproof zippers further enhance the security of stored items. As a result, you can be sure that your belongings will remain dry and safe even on rainy days.

Thoughtful design and functionality

The backpack offers several pockets for easy organization and quick access to your essentials. Comfortable suspenders, which are made of breathable material, ensure comfortable carrying even during long hikes. In addition, a holder on the brace allows you to store your glasses.

Wearing comfort

Thoughtfully shaped suspenders made of mesh material provide comfort and good ventilation, which is extremely important during long hikes. The adjustment system allows you to customize the backpack to your individual needs, which increases carrying comfort even when fully loaded.
