Naturehike mini sleeping bag LW180 NH21MSD04

Naturehike LW180 NH21MSD04 mini sleeping bag.

Get a reliable companion for any expedition. The Naturehike Mini Sleeping Bag will keep you comfortable, warm and snug, whether you're planning a weekend trip out of town, trekking in the mountains or camping at the lake. Thanks to its lightweight construction and compact size, the product is an ideal choice for travelers who appreciate practicality and high quality workmanship.

High-quality materials

The Naturehike mini sleeping bag is made of high-quality nylon with a waterproof coating, which provides protection from moisture. The inner layer was created from soft and pleasant to the touch Chunya fabric, which further enhances sleeping comfort. The filling consists of a synthetic fiber that resembles silk. As a result, the product is lightweight and provides warmth.

Compact and lightweight

The product stands out for its light weight of only 760 g. Its dimensions when folded are only 13 cm x 31 cm, which allows for easy storage and transportation. The Naturehike sleeping bag will therefore delight minimalists and those traveling with limited luggage.

Convenient and functional

The innovative zipper system makes it possible to combine two sleeping bags into one, which is especially practical for couples. The double-sided zipper and fabric trim protection guarantee easy and safe use.
