Colmi C8 Max Smartwatch (Black)

The Colmi C8 Max combines style and advanced technology to make everyday life simpler and more organized. Featuring a large 1.83-inch display with narrow bezels and an impressive screen-to-case ratio of 95%, it provides excellent readability and aesthetics. Its metallic, ultra-thin matte zinc alloy construction not only looks elegant, but also guarantees sturdiness and durability for everyday use. A number of available sports modes will help you take care of your fitness, while monitoring various parameters will provide you with the most important health information.

Comprehensive health monitoring

The smartwatch is equipped with a number of advanced sensors that allow you to monitor key health parameters around the clock. The device accurately tracks heart rate, stress levels, sleep and women's health, offering full support for daily health care. Thanks to intelligent algorithms, the watch provides high accuracy measurements, offering 98.5% precision when monitoring heart rate in various sports modes. In addition, automatic sleep monitoring enables accurate tracking of sleep phases and helps the user improve the quality of rest.

More than 100 sports modes

For active people, the smartwatch offers more than 100 different sports modes, enabling accurate tracking of workouts and progress.

Thanks to precise sensors, the device records exercise duration, calories burned and distance traveled. The ability to enjoy a wide range of sports, from running to swimming, makes the watch the perfect companion for any physical activity. What's more, the stress monitoring function and built-in algorithm help analyze emotions in real time, providing the user with support in maintaining mental well-being.

Conveniently make phone calls

The watch supports Bluetooth Calling, allowing you to take calls directly from your wrist. With a built-in microphone and speaker, you can easily make calls without having to pull out your phone. This feature is extremely useful in situations when your hands are busy - while working out, driving or cooking. What's more, the smartwatch is equipped with a smart digital crown for intuitive control - simply rotate the crown to seamlessly switch between apps and watch functions.

Durable battery and wireless charging

The watch runs for about 3-5 days on a single charge, and stays present in standby mode for about 30 days. To renew its energy, use the wireless charger included in the package. After about 2 h, the smartwatch will be ready for further use.
