Charging case for batteries and memory cards PULUZ for Insta360 X4 (black)

PULUZ battery and memory card charging case for Insta360 X4 (black)

The case was designed with Insta360 X4 camera users in mind. Its multifunctionality means that it can serve as a charger or a storage box for memory cards, ensuring their maximum protection and safety. It has a dual charging slot with independent power supply, allowing two batteries to be charged simultaneously, and intelligent charging status management to prevent overcharging and ensure safety. Built-in lights allow you to monitor the operation of the case - a red light indicates that the batteries are still charging, and a green light indicates that the batteries are fully charged. Note - batteries are not included.
