Waterproof body massager ANLAN 10-ATBA11-03A

Take care of relaxation after a hard day. The massager from Anlan will help you relax and help solve problems with headaches, insomnia or hair loss. It is water resistant (IPX7) and its operation is simple and convenient. Additionally, both the device and the included stand use far infrared and UV light. It will be perfect as a gift for a loved one.

UV and far-infrared light function

The UV and far-infrared function can be activated by pressing the button twice. It will improve blood circulation. The UV light is responsible for disinfecting the massager, making its use hygienic.

Water-resistant

Use your massager without restrictions. The device is splash-proof to IPX7, so you can use it while bathing or showering. What's more, its ergonomic design and non-slip finish make it comfortable to use. The massager fits perfectly in your hand and does not slip out. One button is responsible for its simple and convenient operation.

Easy to charge

The set includes a stand and a USB-C cable, which will facilitate charging. To charge the massager, connect it to the power supply using a mains charger, powerbank or laptop. What's more, a 900 mAh battery is responsible for the device's long runtime.

Working the way you want it to Customize the massager to suit your needs. The device offers 2 speeds to choose from: low and high. In addition, the set includes 2 sets of interchangeable heads. One of them will be good for massaging your scalp, shoulders and neck, and the other - your arms, waist, shoulders, neck, etc.
