Soundpeats TWS Cyber Gear Headphones

The TWS Soundpeats Cyber Gear headphones were created with gamers in mind. They offer a special Mega-S sound effect, so you can enjoy more immersion. They also let you choose from 2 playback modes - Game and Music. Their operating time on a single charge reaches 6.5 hours, and modern Bluetooth 5.3 guarantees reliable transmission. Cyber Gear are also distinguished by their original gaming design and RGB backlighting with 4 available effects.

Something special for gamers

Give yourself an unforgettable experience during your next game and enjoy the immersion of your dreams. Simply turn on Game mode and immerse yourself in the world of your favorite game! The headphones offer a special Mega-S sound effect that will help you locate your opponents and emphasize the sounds of footsteps and gunshots. This will help you instantly hear incoming rivals and send a series of accurate bullets in their direction!

Stunning sound quality

Cyber Gear guarantee fantastic sound quality not only when playing games, but also when listening to music - for a more interesting experience, turn on Music mode. Thanks to 10-millimeter drivers, the headphones offer clear, natural and detail-saturated sound. They also let you enjoy perfect harmony. Now in your own home you will feel almost like at a concert!

Bluetooth 5.3 - ultra-low latency

Enjoy perfect synchronization of video and audio, instantly hear incoming opponents and anticipate their movements. Cyber Gear headphones connect to devices via Bluetooth 5.3, so they can provide a fast, stable and reliable connection. No more signal quality problems! What's more, in Game mode the latency is only about 45ms. This means that the headphones will work great during even the most dynamic gameplay! You can also connect to 2 devices at the same time.

Built-in microphones

If you often play online games, you certainly know how much easier it can be to communicate properly with other players. Cyber Gear headphones will help you do just that! Each of them is equipped with 2 microphones that will perfectly record your voice. Thanks to this, you can freely exchange observations with the other members of your team, warn them of threats and plan tactics for the next duels. The headphones will also work fantastically when talking on the phone.

Many hours of gameplay

Don't worry about the headphones discharging at a crucial moment of gameplay. The Cyber Gear have been equipped with extremely long-lasting batteries, so they last up to 6.5 hours fully charged. What's more, with the help of the included case, you can extend this time to about 26 hours. With Soundpeats you play as long as you want - say goodbye to limitations!

Unique style

The headphones feature a modern, original design that is sure to appeal to gaming enthusiasts. They have been equipped with colorful RGB backlighting, the style of which you can adjust to your preferences, choosing from 4 available modes. Try them all and see which one you like best! What's more, the headphones are extremely lightweight (each weighs only 4.2g), and thanks to their ergonomic design, they fit perfectly in your ears and provide incredible comfort.
