Power strip with 5 AC outlets, 3x USB, USB-C, LDNIO SC5415, 2500W (white).

If you want to charge multiple devices at the same time, the LDNIO SC5415 power strip is the perfect solution for you. In addition to five universal outlets, it also has additional USB ports so you can quickly charge your phone without a charger. The long 2m power cord will make you connect devices that are even at the other end of the room.

Universal power strip

The LDNIO SC5415 power strip will become your universal power supply, thanks to its 5 outlets that are suitable for different types of plugs including UK, EU, US and AU. It will work well for any size of equipment and mobile devices, as its output power reaches up to 2500 watts. In addition, it is also equipped with 4 USB ports, suitable for fast charging of phones and tablets. Thanks to it, you will no longer need to use chargers.

Durable and safe

The power strip is not only a universal power equipment, but also a guarantee of safety. It is made of the best quality PC material, which is fireproof. In addition, it exhibits water resistance at IPX6 level. Optimal power supply to the connected devices will be ensured by a durable power cord with a length of 2 meters.
